

SIW Internationale Vrijwilligersprojecten

Vacature voor Lange Termijn Uitzendingen

EVS project “Valle dell'Aniene urban park” (2003-IT-149) Italië - Rome

Project

The main objective of the project is to create a significant intercultural and developing exchange among volunteers, the local community and the people from the promoting association. We would like to reinforce the European and intercultural dimension of the activities, implementing what is already being done in co-operation with Legambiente in national, European and international voluntary actions.

Vols tasks: · conceiving and producing educational material and units for visitors, students, school groups; · promoting ecological action through the park and through the town (bike tours, no-car Sundays, no-polluting home managing, etc.) · maintenance of the play grounds, the footpaths and bike-paths of the reserve, removing obstacles, weeds and the cleaning the waste-paper baskets; · environmental restoration of degraded areas of the Reserve; · creation of specific themes areas: historical, aromatic or health paths; · managing of the Visitors' centre; · running of the play centre for children inside the centre.

Organisatie

"Insieme per l'Aniene" association manages a centre of educational and environmental education in the Natural reserve of the Aniene river valley in the town of Rome. The association is in charge for running the Visits Centre "Casa del Fiume" situated inside the Reserve where seminars and training about the natural and environmental heritage in the Reserve. The association is also in charge for the ordinary maintenance and vigilance works of the reserve. Furthermore several educational initiatives are proposed to schools and to adults, as well as international voluntary camps and summer playschemes for children. Insieme per l'Aniene focuses on promotion and awareness of an environmental and ecologist policy in the area.

Gewenste/vereiste vaardigheden & houding

The project is open to any candidacy: welcome to volunteers interested in the environment and interpersonal relationships, open mind and flexible.

Accommodatie en voorzieningen

The accommodation of the volunteers is located in a quite popular youth centre in Rome, where frequently music and other cultural events take place.

The volunteers have the chance to meet many other Italian youngsters, sharing cultural happening and also trying to involve them in environmental voluntary activities in the park. The European volunteers will get the chance to develop a personal schedule together with the mentor, being oriented through the various tasks and possible interests they are going to meet

Periode

We are looking for vols for the period of 12 months, starting from September 2005. Usually they serve for 4-6 hours a day, 5 days a week. It can happen that activities take place on wee-ends: in those cases volunteers have their days off during the week. One or two extra holidays per months are included in the service scheme.

Kosten

Zie algemeen EVS gedeelte op deze website

Overig:

The role of the European volunteers is particularly important for the local community, because they represent a unique occasion for getting in touch regularly with European youngsters.