

SIW International Volunteer Group

LTV- project description

UK- EVS

Amilia Farm
Project The Amilia Trust Farm is a community farm based on a 160 acre site, aims to offer a caring environment for recreational, educational and training opportunities. In particular it offers the opportunities to those people who are disadvantaged. The farms works with young people who are suffering with problems at home , people with learning and phychical disabilities, as well with local school groups and general public. Main tasks involve practical outside work . Also the farm provides the volunteer to bring their own interest to the group. (fotografie, horse riding, art, sport, cooking)
Organization The organisaton is an independent charity, working to promote international understanding. The organisaton aims to support community development through voluteering and cultural exchange.
Work style <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Interest in practical work - Open attitude - Working knowledge of English - Patience - Good sense of humour - Ability to work in a close team - Ability to stay calm
Accommodation Volunteers will live centrally in Cardiff, in a house shared with 3/4 others. Each person will have their own bedroom and will share the kitchen, bathroom and living room.
Period At least eleven months
Costs According the EVS description
Extras There is some pocket money and food money paid once a month. The volunteers will also have bicycles to go to and from work.